"Little by little," an acorn said,
  As it slowly sank on its mossy bed,
"I am improving every day,
  Hidden deep in the earth away."

Little by little each day it grew,
  Little by little it sipped the dew,
Downward it sent out a thread-like root,
  Up in the air it sprang a tiny shoot.

Day after day and year after year,
  Little by little the leaves appear;
And the slender branches spread far and wide,
  Till the mighty oak is the forest's pride.

COLLECT

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed;

Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face, without self-pity, and without prejudice;

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid;

Let us take time in all things, make us grow calm, serene and gentle.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are as one;

And may we strive to touch and to know the great common woman's heart of us all; and O Lord God. let us not forget to be kind.

COLLECT

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed;

Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face, without self-pity, and without prejudice;

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid;

Let us take time in all things, make us grow calm, serene and gentle.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are as one;

And may we strive to touch and to know the great common woman's heart of us all; and O Lord God, let us not forget to be kind.

"Little by little," an acorn said,
  As it slowly sank on its mossy bed,
"I am improving every day,
  Hidden deep in the earth away."

Little by little each day it grew,
  Little by little it sipped the dew,
Downward it sent out a thread-like root,
  Up in the air it sprang a tiny shoot.

Day after day and year after year,
  Little by little the leaves appear;
And the slender branches spread far and wide,
  Till the mighty oak is the forest's pride.

CLUB COLORS—Pink and Green.
CLUB FLOWER—Carnation and Fern.

COLLECT

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed;

Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face, without self-pity, and without prejudice;

May we never be hasty in judgement and always generous.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid;

Let us take time in all things, make us grow calm, serene and gentle.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are as one;

And may we strive to touch and to know the great common woman's heart of us all; and O Lord God, let us not forget to be kind. —Grace Julian Clarke.
